The event was attended by Canadian institutions and members of the armed forces. The Minister of Veterans Affairs, Lawrence MacAulay, led the official delegation of fifteen Italian Campaign veterans, representatives of the autochthonous and veteran organizations, groups of young people and high representatives of the government of Canada. The Canadian Ambassador to Italy, Alexandra Bugailiskis, and his Excellency Julie Payette, Governor-General of Canada as Commander-in-Chief, were present. The ceremony ended with the placing of crowns at the Price of Peace monument. The event wanted to pay tribute to the over 93 thousand Canadians who served with the Allies in the Italian campaign, to underline their key role and contribution to the liberation of our country. Thanks to the people of ORTONA in particular to the mayor Leo Castiglione and the municipal administration.
